

NO WINNER IN EPIC RULES FOOTY JOUST

The Old Buffers Rules Carnival at Owen Park on Sunday proved to be a great success. In the match of the day, the Mouldy Mounting Magpies met the Terrible Tired Tigers and a fun-filled game was the result.

Some vague glimpses of fun were shown by Magpies "Mouldy" Magin, "Jabba" Jabara, "Smoglic" McDonald, "Beane" Springer and "Sharbat" Spring, while Tigers in stand out were "Bob-o-Job" Mammel, "Wrecker" Allen, "Booz" Piers and "Harpo" Harper.

Incidentally, Chris ("Harpo") Harper, who is 40 years old, took some brilliant marks in defence for the Tigers, which proves that one is never too old.

Just before the players singed off in the field, the game resulted in a draw. The Terrible Tired Tigers had scored 4-13 (26) to the Mouldy Mounting Magpies 5-5 (38).

One of the highlights of the afternoon was the women's game between the Labrador Lassies and the Southport Struts. By

The blue race was won by Morris Stout, representing the Apex Club. It was good to see Lawrence represented in the day's activities by John Mason, Reg Crockett and Len Polke, who all travelled the big distance for the day's fun.

Success

The Surfers Paradise end-of-season presentation night dinner dance at the Carobore Room was an outstanding success.

Three hundred people attended on Friday night and saw the presentation of a big array of trophies and it was good to see most of those going to junior players.

These boys are the senior players of the future and it is good to see their fine efforts being recognized.

Best and fairest trophy for A grade was won by Graeme Anthony, while Alan Marsh won the under 17 best and fairest trophy.

Garry Duncan and Peter Anders' rendition of "Sadie" was voted the highlight of the evening. Surfers Paradise again occupied the pool this season with all three premiership flags.

Demon's president, Les Damm, and treasurer, John Beaser, were both presented with life memberships by League secretary, George Stephen.

Display

Labrador's secretary Bruce Taylor, reports that the club has set up an Australian Rules display at Marshall's men's wear store in Scarborough Street, Southport, starting today.

The display includes photos and the array of trophies presented to Labrador players at the end-of-season presentations.

The senior presentation night will be held at the Pacific hotel, Southport at 8 p.m. on Friday, 27 September. Admission is $2, which includes a smorgasbord supper and dancing.

The junior presentations will take place at Paradise Point on Sunday September 29, and a bus will leave the Labrador ground at 9 a.m. All players and their parents are invited.

All players selected in the Gold Coast training squad of tonight will have a training run at Owen Park, Southport, starting at 7 p.m. under full lights.

Eager

Speepts from Windermere indicate that the team is looking forward to their first night game and a big following of supporters will make the trip.

The game will start at 7.30 p.m. on Thursday evening. Gold Coast will wear black shorts.

The Old Buffers' game next Sunday at Salk Oval, Cherrumbin, will be a fine finale to the 19th season.

On the programme are a women's game, old buffers game, senior players relay, senior players kicking contest and wheelchair race.

Keith Jenkins will defend his kicking championship won at Southport last Sunday.

The Surfers Paradise and Palm Beach-Cherrumbin Clubs will manage the day and proceeds will go to the Bakery rehabilitation scheme for wounded A.I.F. and New Zealand soldiers from Vietnam.

THEY HURR.
