

Set for Aus. Rules 1st Game

The colours are up for the first Australian Rules football team on the Gold Coast. They will be the same as those of the famous Collingwood team, Melbourne—black and white vertical stripes; black and white striped socks.

This was decided at a well-attended meeting at the home of the game's sponsor, Mr. J. McCann, of Labrador, last week when the Southport club was fully launched.

Meanwhile at other Coast centres organisation of teams is almost complete and it is hoped that first full-scale game will be played on June 18 or June 25, Southport v. Palm Beach-Currumbin.

At Labrador, in the rain last Sunday, 42 prospective players turned up for practice; there were only 24 a fortnight ago.

It is expected that Southport will be able to field two teams within a few weeks—a senior and a junior team.

Meantime, a coach is being sought.
