

Rules players keen

Southport Australian Rules Football Club started the 1966 Australian Football season with a large attendance of nearly 60 players and supporters on Monday last at the club's annual general meeting.

At the meeting, the following office-bearers for the 1966 season were elected:—

President, Ald. N. Magin; vice-president, Mr. W. Rickard; secretary, Mr. R. Rodger; assistant secretary, Mr. R. Fox; treasurer, Mr. H. Peacock; players' representative, Mr. P. Sherring; committee, Messrs. R. Gladman, D. Hannel, W. Hood; delegates to League, Messrs. W. Rickard, R. Gladman; proxy delegates, R. Rodger, K. Rodger; publicity officer, Mr. D. Brown.

boost the Magpies' already allround strength.

The first committee meeting of the club will be held on Tuesday, March 15.

Such enthusiasm was shown that training will commence at Owen Park on Tuesday, March 1 under Ken Rodger. All players are invited to attend training, to be held each Tuesday and Thursday.

Indications so far show that the Magpies will have most of their regular 1965 players lining up for the 1966 season. One exception will be Don Napper who by all reports will be joining Brisbane Club, Mayne. Several smart players from Tasmania and Victoria have been signed up and will
