

BESTIE FOR LEAGUE?

Bestie is best

I was impressed at Owen Park last Sunday with the play of the Maggies' Ken Best.

Whenever Bestie touched the ball a drove of Demons would jet in on him but he always seemed to come out of the ensuing fracas a points winner.

I sincerely . . . and joking I am not . . . advise the local Rugby League czars to have a look at Ken in action. He would make a great rangy lock forward or a fullback from whose boot field goals should flow . . . no transfer worries either.

Southport Australian Rules player, Ken Best, shows his great form in last Sunday's game against Surfers Paradise. All-Rounder believes Bestie would make a great Rugby League fullback — see his column.
